PUSH THE MEDIUM EXHIBITION

Visiting artist Alex Wisser is set to impress the community with his 'Push the Medium' Exhibition opening Sunday 2pm 4 February, at the Narrandera Arts and Community Centre. The exhibition is in conjunction with the Western Riverina Arts Project 'Activating Narrandera Arts'.

The opening will include a performance by contemporary performance artist Alan Schacher who will also be conducting a workshop prior to the opening. The workshop is for artists of any medium and will explore the concept of the role of the body in the production and presentation of art. To learn more about the workshop visit <http://www.westrivarts.com.au>.

Exhibition artist, Alex Wisser, is a contemporary artist and creative producer from Sydney who has collaborated with various artists from Sydney and Regional NSW to create an exhibition that explores exciting new potentials in art making today, using a range of different mediums and practices that push artists to step outside of their comfort zone.

Wisser has brought together works from a range of artists across NSW for this exhibition, including: Nola Farman, Melanie Khava, Alan Schacher, Georgie Pollard, Karen Golland, Kurt Sorenson, Corrie Furner, Julie Montgarrett, Jessica Forster, Greg Weight and Leo Cremonese.

The exhibition will be open for two weeks from 4 February to 18 February 2018 with free entry. A special art networking event is scheduled for Thursday 15th February in the evening. For more information contact Narrandera Shire Council on 02 6959 5510 or email council@narrandera.nsw.gov.au.
