BIG EVENTS WEEKEND AT NARRANDERA

Narrandera is the place to be this weekend with lots of interesting attractions for the whole family.

The always popular Camellia Show commences Friday from 2pm to 7pm at Narrandera Ex-Servicemen's Club with Mayor Cr Neville Kschenka performing the Official Opening at 3pm. This event features magnificent blooms from all around the area and is a favourite for the admirers of impressive floral displays with vibrant colours and lush green foliage. The Show continues on Saturday from 10am to 4pm with a small entry fee of $5 on both days.

From 9am Saturday 18 August, the fascinating National Cavy Show is sure to be a big attraction especially for the children. Judges from New Zealand, Victoria and South Australia will be in attendance at Narrandera Sports Stadium on Victoria Avenue to make their decisions about the best of the best furry little creatures. Entrance by members of the public is free.

Finally on Saturday racegoers can come along and enjoy a day at the TC Lee Memorial Meeting at Narrandera race Club with Lions Train and face painting for children from 11am.

Mayor Kschenka said today that this was a terrific opportunity for families from Narrandera and from surrounding areas including Wagga Wagga, Leeton and Griffith to enjoy the variety and spectacle of interesting and colourful events.

"I commend the organisers of these events for providing such interest and variety for locals and visitors from around the region to enjoy" the Mayor said today.
