BIKE WEEK WINNERS

---

The winners of the Bike Week Colouring Competition received their certificates and prizes at the October Council meeting on Tuesday.

Mayor Cr Neville Kschenka together with Peter Eurell, of Eurells Narrandera, presented the prizes, which included a Eurells Narrandera voucher, to primary division winners Brooklyn Lezius and Imogen Wooden, and the infants division winners Charlotte Davis and Lilah Simpson.

“Many of the entries we received were very creative and of a high standard, making the judging very difficult,” said Cr Kschenka who selected the winner from over 50 entries.

“I would like to thank Eurells Narrandera for their generosity in sponsoring the colouring competition and the Bike Week event.”

In addition to the colouring competition Narrandera residents showed their support for Bike Week by bringing out their bikes and getting involved in the Bike Week activities at Marie Bashir Park on Sunday 23 September.

“Bring out your bike Narrandera” encouraged participants to come and ride on shared path routes and enjoy bike themed activities” said Elizabeth Mudford, Narrandera Shire Council’s Road Safety Officer.

“Younger riders enjoyed cycling within the park. More experienced riders used the shared paths to venture further, including a group that rode to Narrandera Common. It was great to have experienced riders attending and mentoring some of the younger riders.”

“There was plenty of community involvement with free bike maintenance checks provided by Eurells Narrandera, members of Narrandera Bicycle Users Group attending and the Lions Club helping out,” Ms Mudford continued.

The event concluded with participants enjoying a sausage sizzle cooked by Narrandera Lions Club and receiving a free bike safety sample bag with bike safety information, bicycle bell, slap band and back pack cover provided by Transport for NSW.
