NARRANDERA SHIRE YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL READY FOR ACTION

During Local Government Week, Council took the opportunity to officially announce our new Youth Advisory Council and hosted a celebratory afternoon tea with representatives and family.

Our new electives are Wesley Bamblett, Isabella Beaumont, Kayleigh Cassidy, Mia Geddes, Shakira Hocking, Braden Lyons and Abigail Pettigrew.

The goal of the Youth Advisory Council is to represent the voice of young people aged 12-21 who live, work and study in our Shire. Members can encourage our young people in the community to have their say on matters that affect them and what they would like to see happen. Each of our Youth Councillors will take on a leadership role in the planning and organisation of events for the young people within our Shire.

The Youth Advisory Council (YAC) aims to bring together young people and provide a platform for programs, activities, cooperation and discussion.

Congratulations to our new Advisory Council, we look forward to you becoming involved in and contributing to the wellbeing of our local young people and the wider community.

The 2019 Youth Advisory Council and Councillors Kayleigh Cassidy, Wesley Bamblett, Cr Tracey Lewis, Shakira Hocking, Isabella Beaumont, Abigail Pettigrew, Mia Geddes and Mayor Cr Neville Kschenka.
